Placement Services

San Joaquin College of Law offers assistance to employers who are seeking associates, law clerks, interns, or paralegals. This free service provided by the placement office helps to link students and alumni to employers, thus easing the process for all involved.

Full-time and part-time job listings are maintained at the Law School.

Continuing to serve as a community resource!

The San Joaquin Agricultural Law Review (ISSN 1055-422X) is published annually by the students of The San Joaquin College of Law. The San Joaquin Agricultural Law Review prints all matter deemed meritorious regardless of the views expressed. Views expressed herein are views of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policies or opinions of the Law Review, its editors and staff, or San Joaquin College of Law.

Manuscripts:

The San Joaquin Agricultural Law Review welcomes the submission of unsolicited articles, comments, reviews, and case notes. To be considered for publication in a future issue of the San Joaquin Agricultural Law Review, manuscripts must be submitted on 3-1/2" computer diskettes in WordPerfect 5.1 or 6.0 IBM-compatible format accompanied by a single hard copy. Text and footnotes must appear in 12-point Times New Roman typeface printed on one side of each page. Text must be double spaced, left justified, with one-inch margins, and the initial word of each paragraph must be indented. Footnotes must be single spaced with double spacing between footnotes, left justified, and appear at the bottom of each page. Text and footnote citations should conform with the rules set forth in The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (17th ed. 2000).

Manuscripts should be submitted to the Executive Editor at the address indicated below. If any portion of a manuscript has been published previously, or is to be published elsewhere, such information must be disclosed at the time of submission of the manuscript to the Law Review. Manuscripts cannot be returned. The Law Review will not assume responsibility for lost manuscripts.

Subscriptions:

Subscriptions are $15.00 per volume and are payable in advance. Requests for subscription information should be sent to the Production Editor at the address indicated below. Subscriptions will be continued for succeeding issues and subscribers will be billed unless notice of cancellation is received.

Correspondence:

Correspondence should be addressed to the Managing Editor at the address indicated below.

Change of Address:

The Postal Service will not forward copies. The Law Review will make reasonable efforts to notify subscribers if their issue cannot be delivered by the Postal Service and is returned. Please notify the Law Review if you do not receive your issue. Please submit address changes as soon as possible to ensure prompt delivery. The Law Review will not send duplicate copies without additional charge if nondelivery is based upon a change of address without notification. Address changes should be sent to the Production Editor at the address indicated below.
