

Law Students United in Tolerance (LawSUIT)

Mission Statement

Our mission is to build unity and respect amongst our diverse student body and within the legal community and to bring attention to legal issues affecting underprivileged and underrepresented communities. We aim to accomplish this mission through our pursuit of academic excellence. Our objectives include:

- Providing support and encouragement to new students adjusting to their new student workload;
- Serving our school and community; and
- Promoting diversity on campus and throughout the Central San Joaquin Valley.

In furtherance of these objectives, LawSUIT extends an invitation of membership to all interested parties.
